

Mastery Test Scoring for Building a Blended Family FamilyIQ Course

Match your answers with the answer sheet in the Mastery Test Scoring Booklet. Add up your answers. Each correct answer is worth 10 points. Add up your points to receive your score for your final grade for the course.

SCORE DETAIL

QUESTION	Correct Incorrect	Points
1. Which of the following is NOT one of the four big A's Answer: Alleviate
2. Clearly discussing and defining who is responsible for what, decreases conflict and helps to set expectations in your new family Answer: True
3. Positive statements that are repeated and practiced will: Answer: Help you cope
4. You should move quickly to ensure that your stepchild likes you as soon as possible. Answer: False
5. Which of the following is a typical perception of a child in a new blended family? Answer: Loss of control
6. Which of the following is NOT typical of a child? Answer: He or she is oblivious to his or her surroundings
7. Which of the following is the most important strategy for handling blended family issues? Answer: Time and patience
8. Which of the following places is a good place to work out a disagreement with your partner? Answer: In the bedroom, where no one else can hear it
9. Deep breathing is a good example of a coping mechanism Answer: True
10. Measuring "how much" love is more important than acting with love. Answer: False

FINAL SCORE BOX

Each answer is worth 10 points

TEST NAME	BUILDING A BLENDED FAMILY
	Number or Score Below
Answered correctly	(1-10)
Total Questions	10
Points Earned	(10-100)
Final Score

Your Final Score _____